A season for stillness, sunlight and slow Indulgence (<https://meneghetti.hr/en/special-offers/>)

Here at Meneghetti, summer is not marked by days but by sensations. The rustle of olive groves stirred by Adriatic breezes, the rhythmic hum of crickets and birdsong at dawn, the first sip of a chilled Malvazija as light softens across the vineyards... In this sun-drenched corner of Istria, time stretches and deepens. Long, unhurried lunches dissolve into golden afternoons, the scent of pine drifts from the forest to the sea, and the newly reimagined Beach Club beckons with understated elegance.

Here, wellbeing isn't a pursuit but a state one gently slips into - barefoot, sun-warmed, and entirely at ease. It's a season of texture, taste, and quiet celebration - a cultivated kind of joie de vivre, lived slowly and remembered vividly.
